VIEWS OF CULBERSON.

Not Talking, But Is Opposed to Government Ownership.

[Special to The Times-Degratch.]

WASHINGTON, D. C. September 20.—
Senator Charles A. Culberson, of Texas, left yesterday afternoon for his home, after a tour of the East, extending as far as Canada, where his family, has been spending the summer. He was accompanied by his family.

The senior Texas Senator declined to talk for publication regarding his views on Mr. Bryan's proposition for government ownership of railsoads, but it is well known among his friends here that his opposition is quite pronounced. It is understood he has not changed in the slightest from his position of that particular phase of the railroad question from what it was in 1894 and 1895, when friends who have also had the same benefits."

From Jacob Anthony, Portmurray. New Jersey: "I have taken Stuart's 1ya-pepsia Tablets will' the best results. I had Dyspepsia for six years, and had taken a great deal of medicine, but the Tablets seem to take right a hold and I feel good. I am a farmer and lime burner, and I heartily recomment to every one who has any trouble with his stomach to use these Tablets."

From Mrs. M. K. West, Preston, Minn.: "I have received surprisingly good effects from using Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are a certain cure for all forms of Indigestion. They are not claimed to be a cure-all, but are prepared for stomach troubles only and physicians and drugsists everywhere recommend them to all persons suffering from Nervous Dyspepsia sour or acid stemach, hearthurn, bloating or wind on stomach, and similar disorders, and the last of the Russo-Japanose war, arising out of the Russo-Japanose war, and had declaration of the nucleosity for a declaration of war, the following was adopted:

"First—Hostilities cannot commence withing to the adversary by the state intending to commence war.

"Third—Hostilities cannot commence until after the expiration of a delay sufficient to establish the rule to have been compiled with."
